

Chatfield Hollow State Park, Oak Lodge Nature Center, Killingworth, CT

Originally a Civilian Conservation Corps camp (Camp Roosevelt) opened in 1933, the first in Connecticut. The CCC boys built the Oak Lodge, created Schreeder Pond, repaired the dam, planted trees and built a shelter and chapel on the site. Chatfield Hollow became a State Park in 1949.